

STATE TIMES

THE BOLD VOICE OF J&K NOW IN DELHI

Training-cum-awareness programme held at Cygnett Park Asia

on: April 07, 2018 In: Cities & Towns, Jammu

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A training-cum-awareness programme held here at Cygnett Park Asia on Friday.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr Parvesh Kumar, Assistant Commissioner, FSSAI, Jammu, apprised about good hygiene and good manufacturing practices.

Dr. Parvesh Kumar also informed about India Food Show which is being organised by MMYSTIC India at Government Model Middle School, Satwari Chowk, Satwari Cantonment, Jammu, from April 13 to 15, 2018. This type of show is happening first time in Jammu where in an exhibition of food processing, packaging, food and hospitality is being displayed.

All the participants were asked to take care from farm to plate, such as buying of raw material, screening, washing, cooking and storing. Special focus was given on personal hygiene. They were also briefed about the FSSAI Act, 2006 its implementation in vast.

The awareness programme was organized on the request of Rattandeep Singh Anand, Managing Director Trans Asia Hotels Pvt Ltd and Honorary Secretary of Hotel & Restaurant Association of Northern India who emphasized the need of this training session which will be fruitful to all the hoteliers.

Jai Inder, Food Safety Officer expressed his gratitude to Amit Kumar Sood, General Manager, Cygnett Park Asia, Jammu and his team management for organising first ever event of this kind in this part of region and provided every help to organize this session in a big way.

FSSAI IN NEWS

Ajay Khajuria, Daleep Singh and Hans Raj, Food Safety Officers were also present. The session was attended by large number of participants from different hotels restaurants and food joints which included general managers, executive chefs, supervisors, food handlers and many others.